

Cynophile Curriculum Manuel Cañamares

Born in Valladolid, born in 1965, breeder and exhibitor in canine morphology contests with the affix FCI 2652: "Maynefus" since 1987, of Afghan Greyhounds, English Bulldog, Dobermann, Dalmatians, English Cocker, Akita Inu, Great Japanese Dog and Akita American, competing and presenting in dog shows of beauty in Spain, Portugal, France and Holland, obtaining championship titles in Spain, Clubs, Europe and Internationals. My personal influences were Ikerne Zugasti from Garmendia (Mexico), Teresa Prost (USA) and Maribel Abente (Argentina).

Founding member of the Agility Club "Mojadogs" in Valladolid, managing partner, guide and helper of the canine training center "La Orden" in Valladolid, secretary and member of the Crack canine working group in Boecillo - Valladolid. Partner and company administrator Puppy Dog SL. 1989-2006. Executive member of the Canine Castilian Society 1989-2008. Akita Inu Breed Delegate of the Spanish Club of Nordic Dogs and Akita Inu 1994-2002, Managing President of the Canine Mountain Society in Santander 2008, President of the Spanish Akita Inu Club 1991 to 1995 and President from 2008 to 2017, of the CPAA-Club for the Preservation of the American Akita in Spain, recognized RSCE since 2015. I have written and published different articles about the Akita in canine magazines and websites.

National morphology judge of the RSCE since 2007 and International since 2013, specialist judge of the American Akita Club since 2018, having judged to date in dog shows and competitions in Burgos, Valladolid, Madrid, Vigo, Oviedo, Asturias, Cantabria and Talavera of the Queen, in Spain.

International Judge of the following breeds:

- Akita
- American Akita
- Alaskan Malamutes
- chow chow
- shiba
- Basenji
- Ibizan Hound
- Spanish Greyhound
- Afghan Hound
- Saluki
- English bulldog